

THURSDAY, MARCH 10TH

7:00PM in Founders Hall

Guns, Gold, and Globalization

The Mining Industry in Latin America

Francisco Ramirez, president of the Colombian mineworkers union will talk about the current persecution of Colombian unions and attacks on mining workers in particular. He will also discuss how Northern corporations are profiting from abuse of workers in Colombia.

Also speaking in the Marcus White Living Room at 11am

&

Sandra Cuffe from Rights Action will speak about the devastating impact of global mining activities in Honduras and Guatemala and the role of Northern mining corporations in the context of the so-called "development" model imposed by the World Bank and other international financial institutions, multinational corporations, foreign and local governments and the impacts on local development and indigenous rights.

Also speaking in the Marcus White Living Room at 2pm

For more information please contact Kath Golub @ katjecita@yahoo.com

Sponsored by the Progressive Students Alliance | Meetings Monday nights @ 8:15pm in the Clock Tower Room (134) in the Student Center | <http://clubs.ccsu.edu/ccsupsa>

0 600 1200
0 600 1200 1800 Kilometers
Projection: Azimuthal Stereographic